EMPOWERING WOMEN AWARENESS PROGRAM

Government Polytechnic Budgam took a significant stride towards women empowerment by organizing a comprehensive awareness program on November 18, 2023. The event, held in collaboration with Doordarshan Kendra Srinagar, began with a morning show on "Good Morning JK," featuring Dr. Shafaquat Ara, the Principal of Polytechnic College Budgam discussing various programs and initiatives by the Skill Development Department to elevate women's status in skill practices and trade.

Highlights:

Principal's Insights: The morning show, broadcasted on Doordarshan Kendra Srinagar, provided a platform for the Principal of GPC Budgam to share insights into the ongoing efforts of the Skill Development Department. The discussion revolved around the various programs and steps taken to place women at the forefront of skill practices.

Institutional Program Highlights:

The second part of the awareness program unfolded within the premises of Government Polytechnic Budgam, where students actively participated in addressing the challenges and opportunities related to women empowerment.

- Student Perspectives: GPC Budgam students took center stage to discuss the critical issues surrounding women's empowerment. Their presentations covered a range of topics, including skill development opportunities, challenges faced by women in various sectors, and the role of education in fostering empowerment.
- Interactive Session: The event included an interactive session where students could ask questions, share their thoughts, and engage in a dialogue about the importance of empowering women in society.

The Principal of GPC Budgam expressed enthusiasm about the success of the program, stating, "Empowering women is not just a goal; it is a collective responsibility. Through this awareness program, we aimed to inspire meaningful conversations and highlight the initiatives that contribute to the advancement of women in skill development.
