

Cultural Event at Govt. Polytechnic College Budgam as Part of Vigilance Awareness Week 2023

Nagam (Budgam), 4 Nov 23 — As part of our continued commitment to fostering awareness about vigilance and ethics, GPC Budgam is delighted to announce an engaging and culturally enriching event during the Vigilance Awareness Week. Cultural event organized today, promised to be a delightful celebration of diversity, with a captivating array of traditional dances, melodious music, and engaging theatrical performances. Dr. Shafquat Ara, principal GPC Budgam graced the occasion with her knowledge and experience, she said that all the artists and students participating in this cultural are talented and have given a unique display of their art.

Student groups, presented a Kashmir folk dance – Rouf and the other group of student read collection of sher-o-shayari by famous Urdu poets. Dr. Shafquat Ara, principal GPC Budgam extend a warm greetings to all the participants, teaching, and non-teaching staff for their active role in this event. She said, by organizing and active involvement in these types of programs, we contribute significantly to the promotion of vigilance and anti-corruption awareness, leading to a more ethical and transparent society. The cultural event at GPC Budgam, organized as part of Vigilance Awareness Week, is not only a celebration of our cultural diversity but also a significant step towards instilling ethical values and promoting vigilance in our society.