Organized with meticulous planning and dedication, the event aimed to inspire and mobilize the youth towards the completion of government schemes and holistic development. The series of events commenced with a short movie presentation, embarking on the transformative mission of India's Vikas Bharat Sankalp Yatra. The movie, highlighted the commitment to ensuring the saturation of government schemes, leaving no beneficiary untouched. Following the movie, students took center stage, delivering speeches that resonated with the spirit of "Hamara Sankalp Viksit Bharat." Er Suehail, the anchor and organizer, skillfully orchestrated the event, ensuring a seamless flow of activities. The cultural extravaganza continued with a soul-stirring group song, "Swachh Bharat Ka Irada," coordinated by Er Mahapara and Er Mominah Ajaz. This was followed by a thought-provoking skit performance guided by Ms. Safeena Neel and Ms. Shaista Beigh. The skit portrayed the challenges faced by a village due to environmental degradation, weaving together ancient Vedic farming practices with modern environmental concerns.

The event reached its zenith with an inspirational address by the college principal, Dr. Shafaquat Ara who urged students to embrace education, values, and environmental consciousness as pillars of development. She emphasized the symbiosis of tradition and innovation, presenting "Hamara Sankalp, Viksit Bharat" as an ongoing journey towards a brighter future.

Dr. Shafaquat said "The theme "Hamara Sankalp, Viksit Bharat" encapsulates not just a mere resolution but a collective determination to contribute actively to the development of our beloved nation. Each one of us plays a pivotal role in this journey, and it is heartening to witness the enthusiasm and dedication in the eyes of the students present here. It extends beyond economic indicators to encompass the social, cultural, and environmental aspects of our society. As we reflect on the challenges faced by our nation, we must also recognize the immense potential within our youth to be the architects of positive change. The principal's emphasis on education as a cornerstone of development resonates deeply. Education empowers us, not just with knowledge but with the tools to overcome challenges and contribute meaningfully to society."

Mr. Mehraj Din Sofi organized a lively quiz competition between boys and girls teams, adding an element of excitement and knowledge-sharing to the proceedings. The session concluded with a solemn pledge taken by teaching and non-teaching staff and students, solidifying the commitment to "Hamara Sankalp Viksit Bharat." Additionally, faculty members engaged with local farmers, raising awareness about the benefits of Kisan Credit Cards, natural farming, and best agricultural practices.

"Hamara Sankalp Viksit Bharat" at Government Polytechnic College Budgam was not just an event; it was a call to action, a celebration of unity, and a pledge to contribute to the development of Bharat in every possible way. The collective efforts showcased the college's commitment to nurturing responsible citizens who will lead India towards a sustainable and prosperous future.
