

Unveiling the Shadows

Skit Performance Sheds Light on Corruption in Society

Nagam (Budgam), 2 Nov : In a bold and thought-provoking initiative, a group of talented students from Government Polytechnic Budgam took to the stage to address the critical issue of corruption in society through a compelling skit performance titled "Unveiling the Shadows". The skit, performed with passion and dedication, aimed to raise awareness about the detrimental effects of corruption on our society and inspire positive change. It served as a call to action for citizens to uphold integrity and ethics in their daily lives. The performance unfolded in a series of scenes that portrayed the everyday struggles of an honest citizen in the face of corruption. The story revolved around a corrupt government official, an honest citizen and a vigilant media reporter. The skit illustrated the power of one individual's determination to expose corruption and the positive impact of the collective efforts of the community. The students of Government Polytechnic Budgam showcased their talent not only in acting but also in their commitment to addressing social issues that affect our society. The skit was well-received by the audience, which included fellow students, faculty, and non-teaching staff of the institution.

Shista Beigh, Mahapara Safder and Safeena Neel, guided and supervised the students. Dr. Shafquat Ara, principal expressed her pride in their efforts, saying, "These students have shown exceptional creativity and a strong sense of social responsibility. We believe that their performance will encourage our community to stand up against corruption and work towards a more honest and transparent society". Dr Shafquat, Principal Government Polytechnic Budgam, extends her gratitude to all those who attended the performance and contributed to its success. She emphasized that, this institution reaffirms its commitment to fostering an environment where students can not only excel academically but also grow as responsible and aware citizens.
